THE Editor had long ago formed a design of giving the Public a New Edition of Ecton's Thesaurus; the former ones having become very defective, as well by the exchange of property in private Patronages, as by the improved value of almost all the Livings in the kingdom. And, in order to render such a publication as complete as possible, he has spared no pains to procure on both these points the best information that could be had. Many of the Clergy have been applied to, and been so good as to favour him with satisfactory accounts of the livings in their respective neighbourhoods; and he has taken such further advantages as the best and latest editions have afforded. Yet it was impossible, after all his labour, to come at the real value of every living; wherever he has aimed at it, he begs it to be in general understood, that it has been his rule to undervalue, rather than to over-rate them.

His object has been to comprise every necessary information in as short a compass as possible; and thereby offer to the public a very useful book, within the reach of every man's purchase. With this view he has contrived generally to give, in one single line, the value of the living in the King's Book; the real value where it could be ascertained; the tenths, and the Patron's name or description.

In the first column stands the valuation in the King's Book: then follows the name of the living, with the name or description of the patron in Italics; and the last column shews the tenths.

In livings remaining in charge, where their real value can with any degree of precision be ascertained, an asterisk is prefixed to the figures in the first column; which, so distinguished, denote, not their valuation in the King's Book, but their real value; and, in such case, the tenths, in the last column, multiplied by ten, will always shew their valuation in the King's Book.

For

For instance, page 226 —

l.	s.	d.		l.	s.	d.
•300	0	0	Northall, V. The Bishop	1	10	0

The figures in the first column, with the asterisk prefixt, shew the real value : V. following NORTHALL, denotes it to be a vicarage, as R. denotes a rectory : The Bishop signifies the Bishop of the diocese : and the figures (1 10 0) in the last column, shew the tenths ; which multiplied by ten, demonstrate also the value in the King's Book, viz. 15l. — So likewise the tenths of the livings, discharged from first fruits, multiplied by ten, will shew the value of those livings, as they stood in the King's Book before the Act of Parliament for their discharge.

All the Deanries are in the gift of the King ; except the two Welch ones, of Bangor and St. Asaph, which are in the Patronage of the respective Bishops : and all the Chancellorships and Archdeaconries are in the Patronage of the respective Bishops : and so likewise are the Prebends ; except as noted in the account of Dignities in the gift of the Crown, and elsewhere. Thus of the twelve Prebends in the Church of Canterbury, three only are in the gift of the Archbishop, the rest are in the gift of the Crown.

Of the Crown preferments, whether dignities or livings, all, not exceeding 20l. per ann. in the King's

King's Book, are in the disposal of the Lord Chancellor : all above that value are disposed of by the Minister.

Such dorratives, chapels, and perpetual curacies, as have stipends annexed to them, to the value of 10l. a year, and are not in the gift of the rector or vicar of the parish to which they respectively appertain, the reader will find duly inserted : but all beneath that value are deemed not worth inserting ; and the patronage of those, which are in the gift of the respective rectors or vicars, is conceived to be too well known by all that can be interested in them, to require insertion.

All the hospitals, abbies, chanteries, and other places, which by former acts of parliament have been dissolved, or by judgment of the Court of Exchequer exonerated, being of no other use, in this place, than to swell the expence of the book, are purposely omitted ; and great care is taken that all that is of use should be here set down in its proper place, and that such (and such only) as is of no use shall be omitted.

There are added at the end of the book some precedents, such as are conceived to be of frequent use to the Clergy ; together with some other hints and directions in matters (wherein the younger Clergy, who, by reason of their studies of a different nature, and want of experience, are observed to be most at a loss) collected from the statutes to which they refer, and made as short and intelligible as the nature of them will admit; purposely added to save them the great trouble of searching all the statutes relating to those matters, and to prevent their being misled by the wrong informations they may possibly meet with by consulting ignorant people.

And to render this publication more compleat than any thing of the kind, the Editor has thrown in other articles of information, which are so intimately connected with clerical concerns, that no beneficed Clergyman ought to be without them.

At the end is a copious and accurate Index of all the livings in England and Wales; with reference to the respective pages, where the accounts and description of them are to be found in the first part of the work.

The difference between the ancient and modern way of writing and spelling the names of places may create the appearance of error, which, in every case that can offer, is easily rectified; for the livings being ranged in their proper deaneries, though in some few instances they may be differently spelled, cannot be easily mistaken.

In the Edition of Ecton, which, in the arrangement of the dioceses and deanries, has in this publi-

publication been followed, the Latin names of the dioceses and counties were adopted ; which, as a matter of no consequence, have by the present editor been retained.

I.
THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY'S DIRECTIONS TO THE BISHOPS OF HIS PROVINCE, ANNO 1759, CONCERNING ORDERS AND CURATES.

I. THAT you require of every person, who desires to be admitted to holy orders, that he signify to you his name, and place of abode, and transmit to you his testimonial, and a certificate of his age duly attested, with the title upon which he is to be ordained, at least twenty days before the time of ordination; and that he appear on Wednesday, or at farthest on Thursday in Ember Week, in order to his examination.

II. That if you shall reject any person, who applies for holy orders, upon the account of immorality proved against him, you signify the name of the person so rejected, with the reason of your rejecting him, to me within one month; that so I may acquaint the rest of my suffragans with the case of such rejected person before the next ordination.

III. That you admit not any person to holy orders, who having resided any considerable time out of the university does not send to you, with his testimonial, a certificate signed by the minister, and other credible inhabitants of the parish where he so resided, expressing that notice was given in the church, in time of divine service on some Sunday, at least a month before the day of ordination, of his intention to offer himself to you to be ordained at such a time: and that, upon such notice given, no objections have come to their knowledge for the which he ought not to be ordained.

IV. That you admit no letters testimonial, on any occasion whatever, unless it be therein expressed, for what particular end and design, such letters are granted; nor unless it be declared, by those who shall sign them, that they have personally known the life and behaviour of the person for the time by them certified; and do believe in their conscience, that he is qualified for that order, office, or employment, to which he desires to be admitted.

V. That in all testimonials sent from any college or hall, in either of the universities, you expect that they be signed, as well as sealed; and that among the persons signing, the governor of such college or hall, or in his absence, the next person under such governor, with the dean, or reader of divinity, and the tutor of the person to whom the testimonial is granted (such tutor being in the college, and such person being under the degree of master of arts), do subscribe their names.

VI. That you admit not any person to holy orders upon letters dimissory, unless they are granted by the bishop himself, or guardian of the spiritualities, sede vacante; nor unless it be expressed in such letters, that he, who grants them, has fully satisfied himself of the title, and conversation of the person, to whom the letter is granted.

VII. That you make diligent inquiry concerning curates in your diocese, and proceed to ecclesiastical censures against those, who shall presume to serve cures without being first duly licensed thereto; as also against all incumbents who shall receive and employ them, without first obtaining such licence.

VIII. That you do not by any means admit of any minister, who removes from another diocese, to serve as a curate in yours, without the testimony in writing of the bishop of that diocese, or ordinary of the peculiar jurisdiction, from whence he comes, of his good life, ability, and conformity to the ecclesiastical laws of the Church of England.

IX. That you do not allow any minister to serve more than one church or chapel, in one day, except that chapel be a member of the parish church, or united thereunto; and unless the said church or chapel, where such minister shall serve in two places, be not able, in your judgment, to maintain a curate.

X. That in the instrument of licence granted to any curate, you appoint him, what shall appear to you, upon due consideration of the duty to be performed by him, the value of the benefice, and the other circumstances of the case, a sufficient salary, according to the power vested in you by the laws of the church, and the particular direction of the act of parliament for the better maintenance of curates.

XI. That you take care, as much as is possible, that whosoever is admitted to serve any cure, do reside in the parish where he is to serve;

serve; especially in livings that are able to support a resident curate: and where that cannot be done, that he do at least reside so near to the place, that he may conveniently perform all the duties both in the church and parish.

XII. That you be very cautious in accepting resignations; and endeavour with the utmost care, by every legal method, to guard against corrupt and simoniacal presentations to benefices.

XIII. That you require your clergy to wear their proper habits, preserving always an evident and decent distinction from the laity in their apparel; and to shew in their whole behaviour, that seriousness, gravity, and prudence, which becomes their function; abstaining from all unsuitable company and diversions.

H. having been personally known to us for the space of three years last past, hath during that time lived piously, soberly, and honestly, and diligently applied himself to his studies; nor hath he at any time (as far as we know, or have heard) maintained or written any thing contrary to the doctrine or discipline of the Church of England: and moreover, we think him a person worthy to be admitted to the sacred order of a deacon. DIRECTIONS

DIRECTIONS, RELATIVE TO INSTITUTION, CONCERNING CERTAIN NECESSARY ACTS BEFORE AND AFTER IT.

A CLERK, having a presentation to a benefice, must tender it to the bishop of the diocese, or other ordinary having episcopal jurisdiction, where that benefice is situated: he must then produce to the bishop or ordinary his letters of orders, and a testimonial of his good life and conversation (signed and sealed by three at least of his neighbours of the clergy where he has lived) for the space of three years before the date of his presentation, if he has been so long in priests orders; or, if he has not been so long a priest, for the time since he has been ordained priest. Then he must offer himself to subscribe the 39 articles of religion, which must be done in the presence of the ordinary, and also the two other articles, canon 36, relating to the King's supremacy, and lawful use of the common prayer, and must also subscribe that part of the declaration required by the act of uniformity, 14 Caroli II. cap. 4. viz. "I will conform to the liturgy of the church of England, as it is now by law established." Upon the performance of which he receives a certificate under the hand and seal of the bishop.

Before institution he must take the oath required by the statute 1 King William and Queen Mary, cap. 8. And then the oath against simony, and the oath of canonical obedience; and, if he be to be instituted to a vicarage, the oath of residence. Then follows the institution by which the church becomes full, and by it the incumbent has the cure of souls committed to him, and he may enter upon the glebe by virtue thereof. After this succeeds the induction, which upon exhibiting the bishop's mandate, the arch-deacon, who either himself, or by a warrant directed to some neighbouring clergyman (which is most usual) is performed after this manner; the person empowered to induct taking the hand of the person to be inducted, lays it on the key of the church (in the church door) or the ring of the door (or if the church be ruined, 'tis done by laying his hand on the wall, or the fence of the churchyard) and saying "by virtue of this instrument (which he has from the arch-deacon)" "I induct you into the real, actual, and corporal possession of the rectory of N. with all its fruits, members, and appurtenances. Which said, he puts the incumbent into possession of the church; who, when he has tolled a bell comes forth; and the inductor endorses a certificate of such his induction on the warrant of the arch-deacon, attested by those which are present.

By stat. 14. Caroli II. cap. 4. the clerk, within two months after induction, induction, must upon some Sunday read the book of common-prayer (that is to say) the whole service of the church appointed for that day, both for morning and evening service, and likewise declare his assent and consent to the same in these words, "I do declare my unfeigned assent and consent to all and every thing contained and prescribed in, and by the book, intituled [the book of common-prayer and administration of the sacraments, and other rites and ceremonies of the church, according to the use of the church of England; together with the psalter or psalms of David, pointed as they are to be sung or said in churches, and the form or manner of making, ordaining and consecrating of bishops, priests and deacons.]

By the statute 13 Eliz. cap. 12. within two months after induction, in the church, whereto the clerk is admitted, he must read the 39 articles, and declare his unfeigned assent and consent thereto in prayer time, viz. sometime before the whole service be ended. He may also at the same time read the certificate he receives from the bishop, and make his declaration in these words following, "I will conform to the liturgy of the church of England, as it is now by law established. Which declaration, tho' certified by the bishop to have been made before him, is yet (by the better opinions) thought necessary to be added as a declaration made before the whole congregation, which the bare reading the certificate is not taken to be.

There should be two or three witnesses to the reading of the liturgy, articles, and declaration, who may swear (upon occasion) that he did perform these things; it is therefore necessary that he procure some books of articles, and give them to some intelligent persons who may peruse them at the same time he reads them, and so be able to attest the same when required; and it will be convenient that upon the due performance of these things they sign some such testimonial as the following.

Memorandum, that on Sunday the day of in the year of our Lord 1711. A. B. rector of C. within the diocese of Winton and county of Southampton, did read in his parish church of C. aforesaid, publicly, and solemnly, the morning and evening prayer according to the form prescribed in, and by the book, intituled, "the book of common-prayer, and administration of the sacraments, and other rites and ceremonies of the church, according to the usage of the church of England, together with the psalter or psalms of David, pointed as they are to be sung or said in churches; the form or manner of making, ordaining, and consecrating of bishops, priests and deacons." And immediately after reading of the same, the said A. B. did openly, and publicly, before before the congregation there assembled, declare his unfeigned assent and consent to all things therein contained and prescribed: also that he did publickly, and openly, on the day and year aforesaid, in the time of divine service, read a certificate under the hand and seal of the Right Reverend Father in God J. Lord bishop of Winton; and immediately after the reading thereof, did, in the same place, the congregation being present, read this declaration following, viz. "I will conform to the liturgy of the church of England, as it is now by law established. And that on the day and year aforesaid, the said A. B. did read the articles of religion commonly called the thirty-nine articles agreed upon in convocation in the year 1652, in his parish church aforesaid, in the time of divine service there, and did declare his unfeigned assent and consent thereto. In witness, &c.

Within three months after taking a benefice the incumbent is to take the abjuration oath in some of the courts at Westminster, or at the quarter-sessions where his benefice is situate.

Some cautious clergymen take the test upon their admission to any benefice; but whether rectors and vicars are within the statute 25 Caroli II. that enjoins it, is a doubt.

A RESIGNATION BEFORE A PUBLIC NOTARY.

IN the name of God amen, before you a notary publick, and credible witnesses here present, I vicar of the parish of _____ in the county of _____ and and diocese of *, for certain just and lawful causes me hereunto especially moving, without compulsion, fraud, or deceit, do purely, simply, and absolutely resign and give up my said vicarage and parish church, with all their rights, members, and appurtenances, into the sacred hands of the right reverend father in God by divine permission, lord bishop of or of any other whomsoever, that hath, or shall have power to admit this my resignation; and I totally renounce my right, title and possession, in and to the same vicarage and parish church, with all their rights, members, and appurtenances heretofore had, and hitherto belonging to me, I quit them, and expressly recede from them by these presents: And that this my resignation may have its full effect, I do hereby nominate and appoint my beloved in Christ, and jointly and severally my proctors or substitutes to exhibit this my resignation to the said reverend father, and in my name to pray that his lordship would graciously vouchsafe to accept thereof, and to pronounce and declare the vicarage of afore said void, and to be void of my person, to all intents of law that may follow thereupon; and to decree that an intimation of the said avoidance may be issued to the patron thereof. RESIGNATION TO A BISHOP.

B. vicar of C. in the county of D. and in your lordship's diocese and jurisdiction of F. for certain just and lawful causes me hereunto especially moving, without compulsion, fraud or deceit, do purely, simply, and absolutely resign and give up my said vicarage and parish church of C. with all their rights, members and appurtenances, into your lordship's sacred hands, with all my right, title and possession of, in and to the same; I quit them, and expressly recede from them by these presents, humbly praying, that your lordship would be graciously pleased to accept this my resignation, and to pronounce and declare the vicarage of C. aforesaid void, and to be void of my person, to all intents of law that may follow thereupon, and to decree that an intimation of the said avoidance may be issued to the patron thereof.

In witness, &c.

Mem. It is to be observed, that a resignation must be made to the bishop or ordinary, and not to the patron, except the church or chapel be a donative exempt, in which case it is to be made to the patron, in the presence of a notary publick and two credible witnesses. And in case of exchange, or permutation of benefices, on account of health, or other conveniencies, which the law allows, it will be proper for the parties to resign before a notary, that their respective resignations may be interposed before either of the livings is declared void by the ordinary; because it may be doubted, whether a conditional resignation be valid or not, if the words purely, simply, and absolutely be omitted; for, by the statute of the 31st of Q. Eliz. c. 6, § 8, all corrupt resignations are strictly prohibited in the following words: "That if any incumbent of any benefice with cure of souls, after the end of the said forty days, do, or shall corruptly resign or exchange the same, or corruptly take for, or in respect of the resigning or exchanging of the same, directly or indirectly, any pension, sum of money, or benefit whatsoever; that then as well the giver, as the taker of any such pension, sum of money, or other benefit corruptly, shall lose double the value of the sum so given, taken, or had; the one moiety, as well thereof, as of the forfeiture of double value of one year's profit before mentioned, to be to the queen's majesty, her heirs and successors, and the other moiety to him or them that will sue for the same, by action of debt, bill, or information, in any of her majesty's courts of record, in which no essoin, protection or wager of law or privilege, shall be admitted or allowed."

By an Act of Parliament 12 Anna, Cap. 14.

IT is enacted, that when a presentation shall be brought to any Bishop, &c. He is required to examine the person presented on oath, before he give him institution, whether to the best and utmost of his knowledge or belief the person or persons, who made such presentation, be the true and real patron or patrons of the said benefice or ecclesiastical living, or made the said presentation in his, her, or their own right, or whether such person or persons so presenting be not mediately or immediately, directly or indirectly, trustee or trustees, or any way interested for some other, and what person or persons by name; who is or are papists, or make profession of the Romish religion, or the children of such, or for any other, and what person or persons, and what he knows, has heard, or believes, touching or concerning the same.

I. THAT the augmentations, to be made by the said corporation, shall be by the way of purchase, and not by the way of pension.

II. That the stated sum, to be allowed to each cure which shall be augmented, be 200*l.* to be invested in a purchase, at the expence of the corporation.

III. That the governors shall begin with augmenting those cures that do not exceed the value of 10*l.* per ann. and shall augment no other, till those have all received our bounty of 200*l.* except in the cases, and according to the limitations hereafter named.

IV. That in order to encourage benefactions from others, and thereby the sooner to compleat the good that was intended by our bounty, the governors may give the said sum of 200*l.* to cures not exceeding 50*l.* per annum, where any person will give the same, or a greater sum, or value in lands or tythes.

V. That the governors shall every year, between Christmas and Easter, cause the account of what money they have to distribute that year to be audited; and when they know the sum, public notice shall be given in the Gazette, or such other way as shall be judged proper, that they have such a sum to distribute in so many shares; and that they will be ready to apply those shares to such cures as want the same, and are by the rules of the corporation qualified to receive them, where any persons will add the like or greater sum to it, or the value in lands and tythes, for any such particular cure.

VI. That if several benefactors offer themselves, the governors shall first comply with those that offer the most.

VII. Where the sums offered by other benefactors are equal, the governors shall always prefer the poorer living.

VIII. Where the cures to be augmented, are of equal value, and the benefactions offered by others are equal, there they shall be preferred that first offer.

IX. Provided nevertheless, that the preference shall be so far given to cures not exceeding 10*l.* per annum, that the governors shall shall not apply above two third parts of the money, they have to distribute that year, to cures exceeding that value.

X. Where the governors have expected till Michaelmas what benefactors will offer themselves, then no more proposals shall be received for that year: but if any money remain after that to be disposed of; in the first place, two or more of the cures in the gift of the crown, not exceeding 10*l.* per annum, shall be chosen by lot, to be augmented preferably to all others: the precise number of these to be settled by a general court, when an exact list of them shall be brought in to the governors.

XI. As for what shall remain of the money to be disposed of after that, a list shall be taken of all the cures in the church of England, not exceeding 10*l.* per annum; and so many of them be chosen by lot, as there shall remain sums of 200*l.* for their augmentation.

XII. When all the cures not exceeding 10*l.* per annum shall be so augmented, the governors shall then proceed to augment those of greater value, according to such rules as shall at any time hereafter be proposed by them, and approved of by us, our heirs or successors, under our or their great seal.

XIII. That all charitable gifts, in real or personal estates, made to the corporation, shall be strictly applied, according to the particular direction of the donor or donors thereof, where the donor shall give particular direction for the disposition thereof: and where the gift shall be generally to the corporation, without any such particular direction, the same shall be applied as the rest of the fund or stock of the corporation is to be applied.

XIV. That a book shall be kept, wherein shall be entered all the subscriptions, contributions, gifts, devises, or appointments, made or given, of any monies, or of any real or personal estate whatsoever, to the charity mentioned in the charter, and the names of the donors thereof, with the particulars of the matters so given; the same book to be kept by the secretary of the corporation.

XV. That a memorial of the benefactions and augmentations made to each cure, shall, at the charge of the corporation, be set up in writing on a stone, to be fixed in the church of the cure so to be encreased, there to remain in perpetual memory thereof.

XVI. When the treasurer shall have received any sum of money for the use of the corporation, he shall, at the next general court to be holden after such receipt, lay an account thereof before the governors, who may order and direct the same to be placed out for the improvement thereof, upon some public fund or other security, till they have an opportunity of laying it out in proper purchases for the augmentation of cures.

XVII. That the treasurer do account annually before such a committee of the governors, as shall be appointed by a general court of the said corporation, who shall audit and state the same; and the said account shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall be laid before the next general court after such stating; the same to be there re-examined and determined.

XVIII. The persons, whose cures shall be augmented, shall pay no manner of fee or gratification to any of the officers or servants of this corporation.

Note. If a living of small value be augmented either by lot, or by way of private benefaction, as above, which living by such augmentation is not advanced so as to be of the clear yearly value of 50*l.* or upwards; the same living is capable of a second augmentation, if 200*l.* more be offered the next year after such augmentation, provided the living after such additional augmentation do not exceed in yearly value fifty pounds.

IV.

SUBSTANCE OF THE ACT, PASSED IN THE 17th OF GEORGE III. TO PROMOTE THE RESIDENCE OF THE PAROCHIAL CLERGY, BY MAKING PROVISION FOR THE MORE SPEEDY AND EFFECTUAL BUILDING, REBUILDING, REPAIRING, OR PURCHASING HOUSES, AND OTHER NECESSARY BUILDINGS AND TENEMENTS, FOR THE USE OF THEIR BENEFICES.

THE incumbent of any ecclesiastical living, whereon there is no house, or a ruinous and decayed one, may borrow money sufficient to rebuild one; and, with the consent of the ordinary and patron, as a security for the money so to be borrowed, not exceeding two years neat income and produce of such respective living, mortgage the glebe, tithes, &c. for the term of twenty-five years, or till such mortgage money shall be paid off.

Every incumbent, who shall not reside twenty weeks in each year upon his living, shall annually pay 10*l.* per cent. of the principal, and the interest due. And every incumbent paying only 5*l.* per cent. of the principal, must produce a certificate of his residence under the hands of two rectors, vicars, &c. On failure of payment of principal and interest for forty days after due, the mortgagee may distrain.

The money borrowed is to be paid to such persons, as the ordinary, &c. shall appoint; who shall contract for the buildings, &c. and see the same executed, and pay for them. And as soon as the buildings are completed, the incumbent shall, at his own expence, insure them against fire.

And of any living worth 100*l.* per an. which has no proper house of habitation upon it, the ordinary may (if the incumbent neglect to make application, &c.) procure an estimate, &c. and proceed in the execution of this act, in such manner as the parson is directed to proceed. And all money received from the representatives of former incumbents for dilapidations, &c. shall be applied in part of the payments for the new erections under this act, or in making some additional improvements.

Where new buildings are necessary for the residence of the incumbent, the ordinary, &c. may purchase any convenient house within one mile of the church; and a certain portion of land: the purchase-money of such land to be raised by sale of part of the glebe or tithes of such benefice, or the transaction may be settled by exchange.

To promote the execution of this act, the governors of Queen Anne's Ann's bounty are empowered to lend certain sums: the sum of 100*l.* to livings, the annual income of which does not exceed 50*l.* per ann. without interest: and any sum, not exceeding two years income of such living, to a benefice, the annual value of which shall exceed the sum of 50*l.* per ann. at the interest of 4*l.* per cent.

The colleges of Oxford and Cambridge, and other corporate bodies, being patrons of livings, are empowered to lend any sums without interest, to aid the execution of this act.

¶ The above is the substance of the act: to which is annexed a schedule, containing certain forms of deeds, to which the bill refers: such as,

“Form of the consent of the ordinary and patron.”

“Form of mortgages:” &c.

For which I refer the reader to the act itself.

V.

THE NATURE OF TITHES ILLUSTRATED; WHEREIN IS GIVEN A SUCCINCT ACCOUNT OF ALL THINGS TITHABLE, AND THE MANNER OF COLLECTING THEM; AS ALSO OF COMPOSITIONS, CUSTOMS, PRESCRIPTIONS AND PRIVILEGES, DISTINGUISHED UNDER THEIR PROPER HEADS; WITH REFERENCES TO ADJUDGED CASES, AND STATUTES RELATING TO TITHES.

TITHES are a tenth part of the increase yearly arising from the profits of lands, stocks upon lands, and the industry of the parishioner; payable for the maintenance of the parish priest, by every one that hath things titheable, if a special exemption cannot be shewn. They were first appointed by Moses to be paid to the sons of Levi, of all lawful things, as appertaining to Gon.

They are either predial or personal.

PREDIAL are those which immediately arise from the land, either by manurance, or of its own nature; as grain, hay, wood, fruits, herbs, &c. payable when they arise.

PERSONAL are those which arise only from the labour and industry of man, being the tenth part of his clear gains in his trade or profession; as for mills, or fish caught at sea, payable only by custom.

These

These are sometimes

MIXT, such as those that arise partly from cattle, and other things that receive their nourishment immediately from the ground, and partly by industry in the management of them; as colts, calves, pigs, wool, lambs, milk, cheese, chickens, eggs, &c. payable where they arise.

Tithes, with respect to their value, are distinguished into GREAT, as corn, pulse, agistments, timber, &c. which are generally due to the rector.

SMALL, as seeds of flax, millet, leek, onion, &c. Herbs, mint, rue, parslly, cummin, saffron, &c. Eggs, fowls, beasts, fruits, underwoods, for fuelling sold, &c. which are commonly due to the vicar.

But custom will make a great tithe a small one, and the quantity will turn a small tithe into a great one.

And they are required by

COMPOSITION, TRANSACTION, CUSTOM, PRESCRIPTION, PRIVILEGE.

COMPOSITION holdeth or faileth diversly. Between clerks themselves, as translating of tithes from one church to another holdeth good; but these must be regarded, as

FIRST. Personal, which does not hold.

SECOND. Predial, which holdeth with the approbation of the bishop, and binds the clerk and his successors, else only the clerk.

THIRD. Composition that tithes shall be remitted, does not hold; for tithe must not be taken away.

FOURTH. Between laymen and clerks. Fore passed, this holdeth. To come, that tithes be not paid at all is not to be admitted, if the composition be not wholly paid; but in part it holdeth, but must be confirmed by supreme authority.

TRANSACTION differs from composition. Composition is a voluntary agreement; transaction is forced of things doubtful, and holdeth, though the things are temporal; for the profit of tithes is reputed such, and transactions of tithes must be respected according to the terms.

For a limited time. Which holdeth with the bishop's approbation.

Or for ever. This holdeth where the interest of the church is doubtful; but where the right is clear, it does not, otherwise than by consent of supreme authority.

FIRST.

CUSTOM holdeth or faileth many ways.

FIRST. As in translation of tithes predial, it holdeth.

SECOND. If of personal tithes, (as is said in compositions) it holdeth not.

THIRD. Of not paying tithes at all; it holdeth not.

FOURTH. Of yielding less than a tenth it holdeth in personal tithes, and in some cases of predial also.

FIFTH. Of places where tithes ought to be left, it holdeth.

SIXTH. Of tithes to be yielded, it holdeth.

SEVENTH. In the manner and form of yielding tithes, it holdeth.

PRESCRIPTION is only different from Custom, in this being a right to many, procured in common; whereas Prescription applies privately to one.

PRIVILEGE, or exemption from tithes, is derived from supreme authority to persons or places, as colleges, manors, parsonages appropriate, &c. discharged of tithes by the statute 31 Hen. 8. cap. 13.

Tithes may be considered as they arise from the lands by some annual product.

Not that tithe is due, if the occupier has some profit whilst the ground lies fallow for its improvement. Dyer 170. but if by ill husbandry, it is otherwise. Stat. 2 Ed. 6. Goldf. 157. Also barren lands improved are free from tithes for seven years. Stat. 2 Ed. 6. but not land gained from the sea, 3 Bulst. 156. nor marsh-lands drained, Moor 430. Yet barren land, during the seven years of improvement, pays such tithes as have been accustomedly paid before. Wo. Infl. B. 2. c. 2. A forest in the king's hands (tho' in a parish) is not tithable, but if in the hands of a subject it is, 1 Roll. Abr. 655. 3 Cro. 94.

The Produce of Lands tithable are

ALL HARVEST FRUITS, &c. as Wheat, rye, barley, oats, &c. 1 Sid. 283. 2 Ven. 48. the parishioner is to cut it down, and bind in sheaves. 1 Roll's Abr. 644. Latch. 125. the parson or his deputy may come and see them set forth, and must take them away, and that in due time, or the parson may be sued as a trespasser, and the parishioner is not bound to watch them. Noy 31.

Cuttings of green tares for feeding of cattle, &c. grain or corn sown sown on headlands, pease, and beans eaten in a man's house, rakings and stubble, are not tithable, 5 Roll. 379.

Where corn has grown and paid tithes the same year, the land is not tithable again. 2 Inst. 652. Hops pay tithe by the pole, and the 10th may be set out before they are dried; but the poles are not tithable. 1 Roll's Abr. 644. Five shillings must be paid for every acre sown with hemp or flax, before the same be carried off the ground. Stat. 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 16.

Grass, hay, clover, lucern, cinquefoil, &c. applied to feeding of cattle, are tithable every tenth cock, according to custom of places. Grass cut for sustenance of cattle, the owner not having sufficient otherwise, is not tithable. 1 Roll's Abr. 644.

THE HERBAGE OF THE FIELD. Custom is, in some places to make the grass into hay for the tithe; in others in grass cocks or swayths only; but then the parson may make it into hay on the same land, and may go over it, and carry away and break down any gate, or inclosure, erected to obstruct him. Stat. Ed. 6. c. 13. Custom in some places is, to measure out the tenth part of the grass, and the parson to mow it. Hob. 250. After-mowth, or after-pasture, pays no tithes, unless by custom. 2 Inst. 621, 652. 1 Roll's Abr. 640. Cro. Eliz. 660. Moor 910. Poph. 142. Tithes shall be paid of grass growing in orchards. 2 Inst. 652. Pasturage for beasts kept for plow and cart, or for pleasure, pay no tithes. 1 Roll. 646.

AGISTMENTS, or unfructuary profits of lands. Agistments, i. e. feeding of cattle upon pasture of lands, &c. Tithes are due if the land pays no other that year. Danv. 600. and the cattle must be agisted for hire or sale, and not fed for plough, pail or labour, they being otherwise profitable to the parson. Winch. 33. Moor 909. If land is let to a stranger by the year, a tenth part of the money is due, Hard. 35. otherwise respect is to be had to the number of cattle, and their time of feeding. If the owner eats it all with unprofitable cattle, the tenth part of the value of the land is payable; though custom or prescription may direct other kinds of payment.—Tithes shall not be paid for young cattle bred for the plough or pail. Moor 910. If cattle are taken for hire, either the owner or occupier may be sued. Dan. 614. If tithes are paid for wool, the sheep shall not pay for their herbage. 2 Bulst. 258.

Oxen or steers kept for sale pay tithes for their pasture, but not weathers, because they render tithe of their wool. Cro. Car. 237.

And if cows yield milk, their pasturage is not tithable. W. Inst. B. 2. c. 2.

TIMBER-TREES and UNDER-WOODS, with FRUITS. Timber Trees, oak, ash, elm, &c. are not tithable, nor trees growing in parks, forests, chases; and the branches with the shoots and bark are discharged with the bodies, 1 Co. 49. when they are of 20 years growth; otherwise loppings are tithable. 11 Rep. 48. 2 Inst. 643. Nor fruit-trees, 2 Roll. 83. nor aspin, beech, hazel, holly, willow, maple, &c. where used for building. 45 Ed. 3. c. 32. Dan. 589. But birch is tithable tho' of 20 years growth, because it's not proper for building. 2 Inst. 643. 1 Cro. 1.

Old decayed trees, having been once privileged, are exempted from tithes, tho' cut down for fire. 1 Rep. 49, 81. 2 Inst. 643.

Pollards of 50 years growth, when felled, are tithable. 1 Lev. 189. Nurseries are tithable, if the owner pulls them up; but if sold standing, and the vendee pulls them up, he shall pay the tithe. Danv. 585, 614.

Under-woods; tithes are generally due if sold standing, payable by the buyer; if felled, by the seller. 1 Inst. 642. In like manner broom and furze; 1 Dan. 597. but they are not tithable, where used for house-boot, hedge-boot, cart-boot. Goldf. 151. Alders are tithable tho' above 20 years growth, 2 Cro. 199. Fruits from oak, beech, &c. as acorns, mast, if they drop from the tree and swine, eat them, pay no tithe, but if severed for feeding of swine they do. Hetty 27. Or if gathered and sold, 11 Co. 49. 2 Inst. 643. Apples, pears, plumbs, &c. in inclosures, gathered for sale, pay tithes in kind; and if sold on the tree, the vendee must pay the tithe. 2 Inst. 652.

MINE 8, and what is dug out of the earth. Mines of silver, copper, tin, lead, &c. are not tithable of common right, but in some places custom has allowed them. 2 Inst. 651. Chalk, clay, coals, turf, peat, fuller's earth, &c. are not tithable. 1 Roll. 366. nor stone, brick, tiles, &c. because they are made of the substance of the earth, and no annual increase. 2 Inst. 651. 1 Cro. 1. for it is a rule, where there is no yearly renewing, no tithe is due, 11 Co. 160. No tithe shall be paid for salt, unless by custom. 1 Lev. 179.

GARDEN-HERBS, seeds, roots, &c. Tithes are due for all pot-herbs, saffron, annis, cummin, potatoes, turnips, carrots, parsnips, onions, &c. and of flowers. Hutt. 77. 3 Cro. 20.

EGGS, YOUNG FOWLS, CALVES, LAMBS, PIGS, &c. Tithes of ducklings and geese are usually paid in kind, but of hens and turkies most commonly in their eggs, as custom guides. Moore 599. No tithes of swans, turkies, pheasants, partridges, pigeons, &c. for them, or their eggs are due by right, they being wild by nature, unless by custom. 2 Mod. 77. Roll. 458. But if tithe is paid for the young, there shall be none for the eggs; or if for the eggs, none for the young. No tithe is due for pigeons consumed in a man's house. Roll. Abr. Tithe Disms. Litt. Rep. 40 Hist. 147. But if kept in a dove-house, they are tithable. 1 Vent. 5.

If a person has ten calves, colts, lambs, &c. in one year, tithe is payable; but if he has fewer than ten, none in kind is to be paid that year, except custom warrants it; but in such cases there is usually a rate-tithe, or the parson carries till next year; they are payable when weanable. Raym. 277. Kids are tithable as calves. W. Inst. b. 2 c. 2.

MILK, BUTTER and CHEESE. Milk is to be paid every tenth meal, and carried either to the vicarage-house or church-porch, according to the custom of the place. Raym. 277. Cheese is only tithable where tithe is not paid for milk, and is due only by custom. W. Inst. b. 2. c. 2. 1 Cro. 609. A number of cheeses may discharge the milk; for no tithe for cheese or butter is due of itself, being made by labour. Moor 909.

WOOL and SKINS. Sheep and lambs are tithable proportionably to the time fed in a parish, to wit, 8 pounds in 80 if a year, 4 for half, 3 if a quarter, and the 12th part if a month, and nothing for less than 30 days. By custom it may be paid at Lammas day, though due at shearing time. Moor 910. If shorne, and they die before Easter following, no tithes are due, 497 Poph. nor for sheep that feed after the corn is reaped. 1 Mod. 216. Shearings of sheep, to preserve them in their walks from brambles and vermine are not tithable. 3 Bulst. 242. If the owner kills his sheep, he must pay tithe for the wool, but not for the skin. Lh. 31. nor of pelts or felts of sheep which die of the rot. Nelf. Abr. 318.

OF BEASTS and FOWLS wild by Nature, and FISH. No tithes are due for deer, hares, conies, wild fowl, nor fish taken out of the sea, but by custom they may. Cro. Car. 192. Noy 108. as of herrings at Yarmouth, Palm. 527. and a custom to pay less than a tenth part may be good. 1 Lev. 179. Sid. 278. 1 Roll. 419. 3 Bulst. 241. Trouts taken in a river adjudged tithable by Stat. 2 Ed. 6. Mieb. 15 Car. 3. Nelf. Abr. 311. Fish in ponds and rivers inclosed, are tithable in kind. W. Inst. B. 2. c. 2.

HOUSES. No tithe by right is payable for them, but by custom, except in the city of London, moduses being for what increaseth; now houses decrease, and are inheritances, and it is a rule no tithe shall be paid for inheritances; nor can husbandry be exercised without houses: noblemen's are exempted by Stat. 38 Hen. 8.

MILLS and IMPROVED RENTS. All corn-mills, not erected before Stat. 9 Ed. 2. are tithable, but if before the memory of man, the law presumes them to be before the statute. Yet if one pays tithe for his corn, and after grinds the same at a mill in the same parish, no tithe is to be paid for the meal. 2 Inst. 652. Fulling-mills, tin-mills, plate-mills, rag and paper-mills, are not tithable, because the profit arises by the labour of men. 2 Roll. 84. Modus to pay 2s. in the pound of all the improved rent in lieu of all tithes is not good, because 'tis to rise and fall as the land is let, and the parson may not know it. 2 Salk. 65.

BEES. Honey and wax is tithable by the tenth measure. 3 Cro. 404, 559. W. Jones 447.

PROFITS made by tradesmen, artificers, &c. All these tithes may be included under free-will offerings, though the Stat. 2 & 3 Ed. 6. c. 13. sect. 7 & 8. says, all persons shall pay their offerings (or tithes which was intended) of honest labour, but not of robbers, usurers, harlots, &c. But all personal tithes are more intricate than profitable, therefore the clergy are advised to desist from contending for them.

THE MATTER OF AGISTMENT TITHE OF UNPROFITABLE STOCK IN THE CASE OF THE VICAR OF HOLBEACH.

IN the original donation by the crown, of the tenths of the produce of the earth to the church, it was undoubtedly intended, that the grazing farm should yield (some way or other) the tenth of its value, in as ample a manner as the tillage; but how this was to be effected, was a difficulty the clergy have long had to encounter. Agistment tithe has been always acknowledged, in argument and in the books, to be due; but never in its full extent specifically complied with.

By the endowment of Holbeach, the bishop of Lincoln is intitled to the tithe of corn, hay, wool, lamb, and flax duntaxat, cætera quæcunque quandocunque quotiescunque accidunt, pertineant ad portionem vicarii.

Upon these general words, cætera quæcunque, &c. the vicar grounded his claim of agistment tithe for all unprofitable stock; which matter was heard and determined in the court of exchequer, Michaelmas term 1768, as per abstract of decree:

“That all the defendants, the occupiers, do account for such sheep agistment tithes, and also all other agistment tithe for unprofitable

"profitable cattle (with costs), for the whole time since the said vicar's induction (nineteen years), &c. &c."

The defendants were ready to acquiesce in this decree, so far as it affected the fat sheep only; but applied for, and were indulged by the court with a rehearing on that part of it, which materially affects the store-sheep, in sending them from one parish to another to eat turnips, cole, &c. as it makes them liable to pay an agistment tithe as unprofitable animals, from the last clipping-day to the day they are taken out of the parish, for any purpose whatever; and the same upon occasion of every removal. This was much agitated by the defendants council; nevertheless the judges remained unshaken in their opinion, and the decree was confirmed.

The vicarial right to agistment tithe of all unprofitable stock being by this decree sufficiently established, nothing remained to be done, but to ascertain the value of such tithe.

This matter was so totally new, that the parties were ordered to go into a joint-commission to examine witnesses, in order to produce the value of the agistment tithe, from the improvement of the animal, when after sitting twelve days, and examining sixteen witnesses on each side, at the expence of two hundred and fifty pounds, the depositions were produced before the master; and, in a short time, rendered as blank paper, by Mr. Madocks (defendants council) observing, "that the vicar's witnesses, &c. had grounded their judgment of the value of the land, upon the improvement of the animal, which was not the object of agistment tithe."—So by a wrong bias of the bar, arising entirely from the newness of the matter, the parties incurred this extraordinary expence.

Fortunate was it for the church, that the improvement of the animal was not the proper object of agistment tithe; because, had it been so, the benefit arising from it would have been uncertain, as depending upon the life of the animal, and the doubt of its having improved at all.

This cloud was soon removed by the master and council agreeing, "that the true object of agistment tithe was the tenth shilling of what the defendant's land is worth, or may be let for in taking in the cattle of other persons to yst."—And thereupon another commission was ordered, for the parties to examine witnesses upon this last-mentioned principle.

In the midst of these seeming uncertainties, and before the above commission was executed, the vicar instituted three fresh causes in the ecclesiastical court at Lincoln, against three other parishioners of Holbeach, for this agistment tithe of all unprofitable stock, founded upon the right to such tithe, having been already fully established by the decree of the court of exchequer, 1768: being of opinion, opinion, "that the value of such tithe would much sooner be come

 "at b a process in the country, than in Westminster-hall; where,
 "at that time, the generality of the gentlemen of the long robe "owned an intire ignorance of the matter claimed in particular,
 "and of the ecclesiastical rights in general, from its not being "worth their study and attention, as they might not have two "causes, to employ or reward their diligence, in thirty or forty "years practice." But the frequency of these claims since 1768, has made the study of these matters more palatable; and there are now many eminent men in the court of exchequer, who shew us every term, that an application to the mystic rights of the church is not near so dry a study as they formerly imagined it.

The expectation of the vicar herein was fully answered; for the proctor in the court at Lincoln expedited these new causes so effectually, that the same witnesses, which the vicar produced on the commission out of the court of exchequer held at Lincoln, 1770, were also examined by the register here in support of the allegation exhibited on behalf of the vicar's claim in the ecclesiastical court.

The witnesses on the part of the vicar, who were most of them graziers and men of large property, upon a view of defendants lands, laid the value of keeping sheep upon those lands for feeding after the last shearing, at threepence, threepencehalfpenny, and fourpence per head a week; and the witnesses, on the part of defendants, who were likewise graziers and men of large property, laid the value of keeping sheep upon defendants lands, for feeding after the last shearing, at five farthings per head a week only; and this uniformly, not one varying a single farthing from the other.

The variation in value in plaintiff's witnesses, is very reconcile-able to men's different judgments, upon the strictest principles of equity; and defendant's witnesses, when they lay the value of keeping sheep on defendant's lands so low as fivepence per month, must not only be supposed to speak to the keeping of store-sheep, instead of feeding sheep fat for Smithfield market, but must also, in that solemn assertion of so low a value, be directed by some private mode of traffic or bargain, between shepherd and master (which is the frequent practice instead of wages), or it may be thought, that they determined the value in their own minds, from an interchange of stock-keeping one with another; and from these vague principles set up a value unknown to the grazing world before, whether the reader forms his opinion from the prices paid in other parishes, where the land is not half so good as Holbeach lands, or from any calculation that will enable the grazier to maintain his family and pay his rent.

Upon

Upon the return of the commission, the master proceeded to make his report; and upon the depositions of the very same witnesses, the judge in the ecclesiastical court (after consulting some learned advocates upon the case) gave sentence upon the value of the agistment of all unprofitable stock; laying the value of feeding sheep fat for market, after the last shearing-time, at tenpence per head a month, when the master in his report laid the value, in the same instance, at five-pence per head a month. The incongruity between the two determinations was nearly as great in the other kinds of unprofitable stock, such as one, two, three, and four-years-old beasts; one, two, and three-years-old horses; only with this distinction, that the master laid the value of keeping these two latter kinds of stock much higher than the ecclesiastical judge; insomuch, that this summer, in the parish of Whaplode, upon drawing up articles of agreement between the vicar and parishioners, who had been litigating this matter of agistment tithe, &c. in the court of exchequer four or five years, upon the principles of the Holbeach cause, it was agreed, amongst other things, "that the parishioners should have a copy of the master's report, and an abstract of the sentence of the ecclesiastical judge, in the case of the vicar of Holbeach, &c. laid before them, and should have their choice which they would be guided by;" when after considering both very closely, they declared, "they would abide by the direction of the ecclesiastical court." Which mode of agreement was immediately adopted.

The abstract of the value, as laid in the sentence in the ecclesiastical court, is as follows.

Sheep sold off fat,	- - - - -	keeping	10d. per month
Store-sheep,	- - - - -	ditto	5d. per month
One-year-old horses,	- - - - -	ditto	9d. per week through the year, unless kept in a straw-yard.—The tenth of these articles payable to the church.

Was it possible for any given quantity of grass (intended to be grazed) to be set out and separated, as is the case in the tenth cock of hay, or sheaf of corn, there could be no difficulty in pointing out the mode of tithing it; but this being impracticable, on account of its being cropped by the grazing animal, the comparative value of the tithe of agistment, and the tithe of hay and corn, can be produced in no other instance but where the occupier of meadow or tillage land compounds with the clergyman at a certain sum per acre; which certain sum must be ascertained by the opinions which indifferent persons may form of what that meadow or tillage land is capable of producing, and what such meadow or standing corn would be worth if sold to another.—This instance is exactly parallel to an occupier of grazing land, letting the eat of his grass land to his neighbour. In both instances the method of coming at the value must be the same, viz. by depositions of knowing persons on both sides.

The depositions of defendants witnesses (which are now recorded in the court of exchequer, and in the registry at Lincoln) uniformly agree in fixing the value of agisting sheep for fattening on defendants marsh lands in the parish of Holbeach, at fivepence per head per month; which lands, at an average, are well worth fifteen shillings per acre; and it appears, that two principal graziers, who were produced as witnesses on the part of defendants in these causes, have solemnly sworn, “that they knew the marsh lands of “the defendant very well; that they did not produce more than “one load of hay per acre; and that such load of hay was not “worth more than ten shillings per load.”

The observation made even by quaker graziers, upon the fivepence per head per month, for the keep of fattening sheep, was “that “if they could even have their store-sheep kept for that sum, they “would not rent a foot of land. That was the land worth but “half a crown per acre (which could not be the case of Holbeach “marsh lands) so low a produce as fivepence per head per month “would starve the occupier.”

The above statement of the average value of land in the parish of Holbeach, and the respective valuation of the agistment tithe, will mutatis mutandis, conduce quietly and without the trouble of commissions, and depositions, to settle the value of this tithe in every other parish.
